Secretary-General's Message

Dear delegates, dais and d-others,

I can't put into words how proud I am to be able to say TISKL will be hosting its 14th conference after so many years, but I'll try. To give a little context, TISKLMUN itself has only held 6 conferences in the past, the last one being in 2019; however, before we were known as TISKLMUN, we were Sri Garden MUN, which held 8 successive conferences before the rebrand in 2013. We hope that through this conference, we can revive our annual tradition and tailor tomorrow's triumph for not only TISKLMUN but for every individual participating in this event.

Our secretariat has worked to ensure participants receive every opportunity for heated, intellectually stimulating debate sessions, providing a platform for everyone to fully articulate and justify their thoughts and opinions. Hesitate no more, join us to broaden your horizons, widen your perspective on global issues, and bring home with you amazing memories and experiences.

Whether you're a beginner or a veteran, you can rest assured that TISKLMUN has something for you, so what are you waiting for? Come and help us tailor tomorrow's triumph today for not just you but the whole world.

- Ethan Looi
Secretary General

Policy for Conduct

Any behaviour or activity that detracts from the conference's purpose will not be allowed under any circumstance. These activities include, but are not limited to, the following;

- Discrimination of any nature, whether it be sexual, racial, gender, or any form.
- Harassment or physical violence of any sort.
- Disrespectful or inappropriate behaviour to fellow delegates, staff, or faculty.
- Conduct deemed excessively disruptive.

All of the above actions will be dealt with swiftly without bias, and disciplinary action will be taken.

Entry/Registration

There is no parking on site. Delegates must be picked up and dropped off at Gate A. All participants must show a valid form of ID at the registration area. At registration, you will be given a lanyard and some amenities. The lanyard is expected to be worn at all times while on campus. You must bring your lanyard every day of the event.

Adult Specific Provisions (Over 18)

- Upon entry, you will be provided a visitor pass that you must wear at all times while on site.

General Rules/Information

This section outlines the essential rules and guidelines governing the conduct of all delegates throughout the conference. The Secretariat and Committee Chairs reserve the right to modify these rules when necessary to ensure that debate proceeds smoothly and efficiently.

Language

- English will be the only official language used throughout the conference. All official business (speeches, questions, debates, documents, etc) shall be conducted in formal and proper English.

Chair Authority

- Within each committee, the Chair holds full authority. They are responsible for opening and closing sessions, granting the right to speak, recognising motions, and making procedural rulings. The Chair ensures that all proceedings follow the established rules of procedure. All decisions made by the Chair are final and cannot be appealed. Chairs may suspend the rules of procedure at any time for the reason of council progression.

Secretariat Authority

- The Secretariat oversees the overall administration of the conference and facilitates communication between committees and delegations. The Secretariat also reserves the right to introduce new rules or make adjustments when necessary.

Absence

Delegates who are not present during roll call will be marked as absent. Absentee delegates will be ineligible for awards or Certificates of Participation. To qualify for a Certificate of Participation, delegates must attend and actively participate in at least four committee sessions. If you know you will be late or absent for a session, please inform your chairs prior.

Dress Code

As this is a formal event, delegates are expected to dress in appropriate formal attire. Clothing that reveals excessive skin or undergarments is strictly prohibited. The wearing of sunglasses and caps is not allowed.

Acceptable formal attire includes, but is not limited to:

- Traditional or cultural attire
- Suits or blazers
- Slacks or long skirts

Awards

Delegates are evaluated on their ability to contribute to their committee. Delegates eligible for an award must demonstrate a comprehensive knowledge of their committee topics and represent their country's policies accurately. Each committee will grant one Best Delegate award, in addition to one Outstanding Delegate award, one Best Position Paper award and two Honourable Mentions. Chairs reserve the right to withhold awards with appropriate reasoning.

Restricted Areas

Delegates and chairs are not permitted to enter rooms in the venue that have not been designated for the conference. Places that delegates and chairs are allowed to enter are the classrooms designated for the conference. All teachers' rooms, offices, or any other areas that have no function throughout the duration of the conference are barred from entry. This is to ensure the safety and security of all participants.

Delegates and chairs are also prohibited from leaving the school compound during conference hours. Anywhere beyond these points is strictly prohibited.

Should there be any inquiry regarding general rules or any other area regarding conference or delegate matters, please do not hesitate to reach out at mun.tiskl@kl.student.tis.edu.my.

Emergency Procedure

Fire/Evacuation Procedure

- There will be no drills during the event. If an alarm sounds, it is not a drill.
- After the alarm sounds, calmly make your way to the assembly point by the driveway, following the directions of your chairs and admins.
- A headcount will be conducted by the admins to ensure all committee members are present, so stay in your committees.

Medical Emergency

- Aid may be provided at the nurse's office situated next to the primary library on the ground floor of block A
- There are also first aid kits by the main stairwell of every floor, as well as in every science lab on the second floor
- If the issue is serious, we will inform your emergency contact listed in your registration.
